

KATA

Kata is an object memory of a holy place, as holy as the primary role of Mother Nature. The nature is voracious and it breaks into the material, tainting it but also giving it a renewed order. As a living object, its material is cut by the nature which emerges from it. And so Nature turns into the main character.

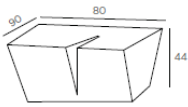

This is one of the centre-piece objects of “Landscape Interior Design” which represents a ground-breaking project inspired by nature considered as a powerful mother as well as the old essence of things.

Kata transforms the landscape into a home place, an emotional and multisensory universe.
